

New India Pledge

New Delhi: To celebrate 75 years of the iconic Quit India movement launched during the freedom struggle, Government of India has taken initiative to free the country of problems like poverty, dirt, corruption, terrorism, communalism and casteism and create a 'New India' by 2022. The government has launched a 'Sankalp se Siddhi' or 'New India Pledge' campaign to urge people to work shoulder to shoulder to create the India that our freedom fighters would be proud of. Director General, CCRH administered the pledge on 9th August, 2017 at 12:00 noon along with all the officers and members of staff of CCRH. Deputy Director General, CCRH also expressed his views about the contribution of 'Quit India movement' to achieve independence and 'New India' to create India of our dreams by 2022.

Director General, CCRH, administering the pledge to the staff